

Beryl Dean Award

for Teaching Excellence in Embroidery and Design in Textile Art 2023

Do you know a technician, who is beyond competent,
someone who is truly inspirational?

In 2023 we are looking for a technician who is worthy of an award.

For more information see overleaf

Beryl Dean Award

for Teaching Excellence in Embroidery and Design in Textile Art 2023

In partnership with The Beryl Dean Education Trust, the Embroiderers' Guild has bestowed the award for 'Teaching Excellence' to lecturers and teachers who are truly inspirational, with results to match, including students who have achieved beyond expectations.

This coming year we are focusing on brilliant Embroidery Technicians who have inspired and supported students during the pandemic.

The 2023 award is being launched in September 2022 when full details will be available on the Guild website www.embroiderersguild.com.

Closing date for applications will be Monday 6th February 2023.

Previous Winners

2014	Winner	Karen Nicol	R.C.A Visiting Professor	2018	Joint winner	Anne-Marie Howat	Course Leader, Arts University Bournemouth
2015	Joint winner	Jan Dowson	Creative Curriculum Coordinator, N.E. Lincolnshire College	2018	Joint winner	Nigel Hurlstone	Senior Lecturer, Manchester School of Art (MMU)
2015	Joint winner	Debbie Gonet	Senior Lecturer, Nottingham Trent University	2018	H.C	Lindy Richardson	Programme Director, Textiles, Edinburgh College of Art
2016	Winner	Hannah Maughan	Senior Lecturer, Textile Design, University of Falmouth	2018	C	Nicola Jarvis	Artist, Designer and Embroidery Teacher, Nicola Jarvis Studios
2016	H.C	Carol Holme	Freelance Goldwork Tutor	2020	Joint winner	Isabel Dodd	Senior Lecturer, Stitch, Chelsea College of Art
2016	H.C	Sonia Tuttle	Freelance Tutor, East London Textile Arts	2020	Joint winner	Sonja Glasworthy	Embroidery Tutor, Surrey Adult Learning
2017	Winner	Polly Kenny	Programme Director Materials, University of the Arts London	2020	H.C	Zoe Hillyard	Senior Lecturer, Fashion and Textiles, Birmingham City University
				2020	C	Elnaz Yazdani	Lecturer, Embroidery, Manchester School of Art

(H.C – Highly Commended, C – Commended)

Applications are welcome from: Technicians in higher, further and community education.

